Dear Parents and Carers

Transform your child's career prospects

As a parent or carer, you have a leading role when your child is making decisions about their career. That's why it's important to be prepared and feel confident when they come to you for advice.

The borough of Lambeth in partnership with Lambeth College and London South Bank University are extremely proud to invite you to an important event with the aim of giving parents and carers a better understanding of the educational landscape for your children aged between 15-18 (up to 24 for young people in care or on EHCP plans).

Hosted by Bianca Miller, an award winning entrepreneur, motivational speaker and brand ambassador, the event will present you with an opportunity to hear and learn about changes in education reform and employment skills initiatives. You will receive practical advice from a range of speakers, on how you can positively support your child with making decisions about future educational or career choices and help transform their career prospects.

We are also pleased to introduce, award-winning career coach practitioner and UK Careers Adviser/Career Coach of the Year 2017 Caroline Parry, who will be providing parents/carers with practical techniques and skills on careers advice for young people during the conference.

This is a FREE event, refreshments and entertainment will be provided. To obtain tickets, please register via Eventbrite and click on the following link Book my FREE tickets for Lambeth Parents Conference 2018
